

Emergency information for EU citizens travelling to China on the occasion of the 2015 IAAF World Championships in Athletics on 22-30 August 2015 in Beijing

Disclaimer:

The purpose of this brochure is to provide useful information to help EU citizens travelling to China for the IAAF World Championships in Athletics on 22-30 August in Beijing. It has been prepared by the European Union Member States' embassies and the European Union Delegation to China. While every care is taken to provide accurate and complete information, the authors do not assume any responsibility, including legal responsibility, as to the accuracy, reliability or completeness of the data included.

Your Embassy and Consulate:

All European Union Member States have an Embassy in Beijing. Many also have consulates in other cities. They will be able to give you help if you need it.

The contact address, numbers and website of your embassy and consulates in Beijing and other cities are listed in the Annex.

You say: "Please contact my Embassy!" Qing nin lianxi woguo de dashiguan. 请您联系我的大使馆!

Emergency

The general emergency number in case of accidents/incidents is 110. An English language service will also be available.

You say: "Please get the police!" Qing Nin zhao jingcha! Da yao yao ling! 请您找警察! 打 110!

In case of loss of passport

1) Report the loss to the nearest police station (Public Security Bureau "gongan paichusuo" 公安派出所). They will issue a police report and certificate (confirmation of loss report 护照报失证明). You can also obtain a standard version police report from a district police office (标准版报失证明)

2) Contact the Embassy for a temporary passport or emergency travel document for your return journey. You will need to bring the following documents to the Embassy:

- proof of identity (e.g. ID card, driver's licence, copy of your passport)
- passport photographs
- certificate of loss
- passport fee

3) A new “exit” visa needs to be issued. As soon as you have your new passport or travel document, you need to take it to the Exit and Entry Administration Office of the local Public Security Bureau (PSB), together with the note issued by the Embassy. Be aware that process of issuing an exit visa may take up to five working days.

Traffic accidents

If you are involved in a traffic accident, however small, you should immediately stop, remain with the vehicle and wait for the police. Call general emergency number 110, or 122, and press 1 for English service. You should fully co-operate with the police. However, if you are required to sign any documents do so, but write clearly in your own language on the same page that you do not understand what you are signing.

Medical emergency

To call a medical service you need to dial 120. Be aware, however, that only a Chinese language service is available. We therefore recommend contacting one of the international hospitals instead.

In Beijing you can also dial 999 (Red Cross)

You say: “Please call a doctor!” Qing Nin zhao yisheng! Da yao er ling! 请您找医生! 打 120 !

Lost or stolen money

In case of loss or theft of funds, you need to contact friends or family so that they can quickly transfer money to you through Western Union. The person depositing the money is given a reference number and you can collect the money by presenting your passport and quoting the reference number
