

QUALITY OF LIFE FOUNDATION

The 8th PINK BEAUTY 2014 Charity Gala Party, hosted by Specified Nonprofit Corporation “Quality of Life Foundation” (Support Council of International Activities for General Medical Researchers) was held on November 8th at the Tokyo American Club.

Quality of life foundation raises awareness and understanding of breast cancer throughout community and promotes the brighter women's life.

This year’s PINK BEAUTY Gala was a great success, with proceeds raised on the night going to fund an international study scholarship program for young breast cancer specialists run by the International Committee of Japanese Breast Cancer Society.

We would like to thank the embassies and corporations that donated prizes and participated in the auctions on the night for your great support. Quality of Life Foundation believes these activities will bring hope and courage to breast cancer sufferers and help encourage women to improve their quality of life.
