

GREEK EMBASSY OF BEIRUT

08/10/2026

JOB VACANCY ANNOUNCEMENT

The Embassy of Greece in Lebanon announces one (1) full-time position, under a fixed-term private-law employment contract, for a period of two years, as follows:

One Driver position, with a gross monthly salary of EUR 1,100.

Required Qualifications and Supporting Documents

Applicants must:

- Be permanent residents of Lebanon, regardless of Greek or other nationality.
- Be at least 21 years of age and not exceed 60 years of age.
- If they are Greek citizens, have fulfilled their military service obligations or have been legally exempted from them.
- Hold a valid Category B driving licence recognized in Lebanon.
- Have proven experience and previous employment as professional drivers or in a related position.
- Have excellent knowledge of and familiarity with the road network of Beirut and the wider region of Lebanon.
- Have a good command of Arabic and English. Adequate knowledge of Greek will be considered an additional qualification.
- Demonstrate professionalism, discretion, responsibility, and reliability in the performance of their duties.
- Have a clean driving record and comply with road safety regulations.
- Submit a copy of their Criminal Record Certificate.
- Submit a copy of their driving licence and, if requested, a certificate confirming that the licence has not been revoked or suspended.

Duties

The successful candidate will provide driving services for the needs of the Embassy, including the transportation of the Head of Mission, diplomatic and administrative staff, visitors and delegations, as well as carrying out official transportation duties and other related tasks.

In addition, the successful candidate will be responsible for basic monitoring of the condition of the official vehicles and will assist, when required, with other activities of the Embassy.

Social Security

If the successful candidate is a Greek citizen, they may be covered by Greek social security legislation or insured with a local insurance provider, if this option is available.

The social security status of Lebanese nationals shall be governed by the applicable local legislation.

In all cases, the employer's social security contributions shall be borne by the Hellenic State.

Submission of Applications

Interested candidates are requested to submit a letter of interest, a curriculum vitae (CV), and a declaration undertaking to provide the required supporting documents, should they be requested.

The application file should be sent to the Embassy of Greece in Beirut by email to:

gremb.bei@mfa.gr

The deadline for submission of applications is 30 October 2026.