Program "Routes in Teaching Greek as a Second/Foreign Language" for teachers in Greece and abroad

The Centre for the Greek Language announces the new period of the distance learning program "Routes in Teaching Greek as a Second/Foreign Language" for teachers in Greece and abroad (<http://diadromes.greek-language.gr>). The course begins on Monday, October 2nd 2017 and lasts for 10 months. Registrations are accepted from 03-07-2017 until 18/09/2017 at www.greek-language.gr/routes.

The program is implemented entirely on distance mode and consists of the following eight modules, which cover all thematic areas of interest for the teacher of Greek as a second/foreign language:

1. Syllabus Design, Classroom Management and Learning Strategies
2. Teaching Grammar, Vocabulary and Pronunciation
3. Teaching Languages to Young Learners
4. Language Performance Assessment
5. Computer Assisted Language Learning
6. Aspects of Language
7. Bilingualism: Language and Thought in the Bilingual Speaker
8. When Cultures Converse at School: Intercultural Education Issues

The program is addressed to anyone involved and/or interested in teaching Greek as a second/foreign language in Greece and abroad, provided he/she is a B.A. holder from departments of Greek philology, foreign philology, pedagogical studies, theological studies or other departments of Greek or equivalent foreign universities. Candidates who have not completed tertiary education are also admitted under conditions.

The program provides a certified specialization in teaching Greek as a second/foreign language and belongs to the qualifications that are accepted among others for the recruitment of permanent teachers in Hosting Structures for Refugee Education according to article 8 par. 3(d) of M.D. No 152360/ΓΔ4/19.9.2016 (Government Gazette 3049/B/23.9.2016).
